

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

There are thirty regiments of volunteers now forming in New York city, to respond to the late call of the President.

The Terre Haute Journal another daydream organ. "State Sentinel," Right for once, Mr. Sentinel, you seem to know each other!

THE 11TH AT HOME.—The Eleventh regiment received their pay on Monday and were mustered out of the service. Our boys returned home yesterday morning. It is said that about two thirds of the whole regiment will re-enlist. No regiment has won more enviable reputation than the Indiana 11th, and none will re-enter the service with a better prestige. Three times three for the Indiana Zouaves.

There is now not the shadow of a doubt that the forged communication sent us from Sullivan, was the concoction of certain rabid compromisers, or rather, men, who desire to make terms with rebels in arms, for the basest of purposes. We have the most positive assurance that Mr. Albee is an unconditional Union man, and has been made the target of those who would apologize for treason.

We have two hundred daily subscribers in Sullivan county, and they will bear witness that we have not only made no fling at Sullivan county, but have vindicated her from the false position, in which she had been placed by a series of treacherous resolutions elaborated by a few politicians, and voted for by a half dozen of their clan, after the meeting was adjourned, and which were so odious that they nauseated the stomach of even the editor of the Democrat. These resolutions sent for publication to the N. Y. Day-Book, have been extensively copied, and pointed to with exultation by the rebels and thieves to show that Sullivan county is, in sympathy, with them. Now who has slandered Sullivan county? Those who are striving to revive the Democratic party at the expense of the destruction of the Government, are those who are slandering Sullivan county are loyal, but there are those who are seeking to seduce them from their fealty, and whom the Democrat is careful not to rebuke.

War Items.

WHAT THE SEVENTH DISTRICT HAS DONE.—The Indianapolis Journal says:—The Seventh District, where John G. Davis has been making his disunion speeches, has sent into the field a regiment and a half of men. This sort of action don't look like his working in favor of the rebel Government of Jeff Davis was producing much effect against the Government to which he has sworn allegiance.

Total number of companies..... 15

Vigo has sent three companies of Infantry and one of Cavalry, besides furnishing a large number of volunteers for other companies.

Vermillion, Clay, and Sullivan, have each sent two companies, making eighteen, or nearly two regiments from this District.

RETURNED.—Lieut. Col. Bryant, of the 10th regiment, arrived in Indianapolis on Monday evening, with thirteen of his regiment that had been left sick and disabled in Virginia. They left Beverly on Sunday of last week, making the journey by easy stages. He is rapidly recovering from the effects of his wounds, and reports that Capt. Miller is doing well, and will be able to return home in a few days.

ARMY WAGONS.—An establishment at Jeffersonville has been awarded a contract by the Government for the manufacture of a number of army wagons. This will give employment to some mechanics in that locality who are now idle.

THE ARMORY BUILDING.—We announced, the other day, the intention of the State authorities to build an armory adjoining the arsenal. The building is already up and nearly enclosed. It is certainly an evidence of promptness and energy on the part of somebody.—Indianapolis Journal.

DEPARTURE OF THE 19TH REGIMENT.—Col. Meredith's regiment, the 19th, left Camp Morton on Monday for Washington. The Colonel and two companies went by way of the Indiana Central Railway, while the other eight companies took the Bellefontaine route. The Colonel takes with him two fine horses. Capt. Buchanan, of Madison, late of the 6th regiment, has been appointed Major in the 19th. The officers are—Meredith, Colonel; Cameron, Lieutenant Colonel; Buchanan, Major.

JOHN T. MILLER has been appointed Commandant of the camp at Laporte.

CAVALRY.—Some twelve hundred Cavalry are now concentrated at Evansville, under the command of Col. Conrad Baker.

MAJOR WOOD.—Major of the 11th Regiment, of Indiana Volunteers previous to the election at Major Robinson. He resigned to take a position in the regular army. We were under the impression that he had been made a Captain, but the Express calls him Lieutenant, and that paper ought to know.—Indianapolis Journal.

THE "CONTRACTED" PRISONERS.—The two prisoners arrested for having in their possession contraband goods, as we noticed yesterday, were yesterday separately questioned in the Governor's room at the State House. Their stories did not jingle together at all—each one convicting the other. They are evidently a brace of rascals, and will be held until the law can take its course. As they appear to have plenty of money, they will likely secure the best quarters possible for persons held in "ducesse vile"—Indianapolis Journal.

THE "NIC."—There will be a Pic Nic held at A. Ellison, near Sand Cut Station in Outer Creek Township, on Saturday August 10th, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. Citizens generally are invited.

Union speeches will be made by Messrs. Charles Craft, J. P. Baird, A. B. Crane, W. E. McLean, Chas. E. Ashford and others.

SECESSION LITERATURE.—Sergeant Wood, who served in Virginia, with Col. Crittenden's Regiment, picked up the following call-to-arms, on the Secession Camp ground after the battle. The arms, ammunition and uniforms, are principally in the hands of the Indians troops, and the army that was to follow, beat a quick retreat.—Major Harman, blows hard enough to arouse the brave men of the west:

HEADQUARTERS, VIRGINIA FORCES,
STATINTON, June 7th, 1861
TO ARMS! TO ARMS!
DEAR MEN OF THE WEST!

Drive back the insolent invaders who insult you by their presence on your soil. Our little band of Volunteers have been forced from Phillips by the ruthless Northern foe led on by traitors and Tories. It is for you now to rally to the field and Avenge the INSULTED HONOR OF WESTERN VIRGINIA.

To-day I send to your assistance a force of Artillery, Cavalry, Infantry and Rifles. To-morrow

AN ARMY WILL FOLLOW.

Sent to you aid by your patriotic President, JEFFERSON DAVIS, and your noble Governor, JOHN LETCHER.

Arms, Ammunition and Uniforms will be supplied you at your places of rendezvous.

M. G. HARMAN,
Major Commanding.

PRINCETON, AUGUST 6, 1861.

Mr. Editor:—A sneaking writer in the Journal, under the signature of "Prairiefire," publishes what he represents as a toast proposed by me at the 4th of July celebration, at this place. That writer is a "beautiful specimen of a bird," called Samuel Baker, who is prompted to misrepresent the sentiment, from his avowed sympathy with traitors. He has given huzzas for the rebel chief Jeff Davis, and said that he was as good as any man. I have no aversion too severe for utterance against the enemies of my country, nor does the law provide a penalty against it that can be too promptly executed. Though a "professor of religion," as the beauty Baker says, I humbly endeavor to honor and serve my God and country, whilst the detestable Baker does not.

Letters Still Going South—Baltimore Secessionists in Washington—Watching the Chain Bridge—Arrival of Fine Field Pieces—More Negroes Set to Work by the Rebels—Rebel Offer to Exchange Men Captured Under a Flag of Truce for Pirates—Gen. Butler Returned to Fortress Monroe—State of the Treasury—The Sympathy of Louis Napoleon with the Government—British Gold in Richmond—Army Officers Confirmed—More Fine Guns Arrived Skirmishing—Rebel Regiments Near Alexandria.

WASHINGTON, August 6.—Information was received here today that letters are constantly going South from Washington and notwithstanding the prohibition of the Post Office Department, the rebels have a daily mail from Baltimore.

For several days past, the city has been swarming with Baltimore secessionists. A Baltimore detective, who came here on Saturday, says he has seen dozens about our streets one hundred of the most violent rebel sympathizers, from Baltimore. They come as spies or incendiaries, or with a view to direct access to the rebel lines.

The exploding cartridges and miniature of the rebel reconnaissance in the vicinity of the Chain Bridge, during the past week, have induced Gen. McClellan to look closely after that point. A sufficient force to guard against any attack has been placed there.

A regiment and twenty finely rifled pieces with cartridges and caissons complete, arrived here last night. They will more than compensate for the guns lost at Bull's Run, but they are only an instrument of the fearful artillery of the most approved patterns, that will be attached to Gen. McClellan's column.

Our various foundries and arsenals can turn out more of those arms in a week than can be built in the South in three months.

A report has come from our Potomac fleet that the rebels have collected a large force of negroes at Musquito Point at the mouth of the Rappahannock River, and have commenced the erection of fortifications there.

It is proposed by the Senate Military Committee to authorize the Governors of the several States to fill all vacancies among the commissioned officers in the volunteer regiments and companies; appointments to be approved by the examining board.

It appears the rebels propose to exchange Messrs. Magraw and Harris for the officers of the privateer Savannah. Harris and Magraw were taken prisoners while pursuing on a mission of mercy, under a flag of truce, and the pirates were captured in the act of hostility.

TIMES DISPATCH.

Gen. Butler returned to Fort Monroe this afternoon.

The monthly report of the United States Treasury shows he had $2,282,475 subject to his draft up to the 1st inst. This statement includes, as yet subject to draft, various sums deposited with the Sub Treasurers of various States. It is a little singular that the Sub-Treasurer of South Carolina paid in full, and not a cent is recorded as subject to draft in his hands.

The Star and Republican of the city continue to publish the arrival and disposition of our troops in this city notwithstanding the agreement not to do so.

I believe that Prince Napoleon has not hesitated to state that the Emperor of France is extremely desirous that the Government should promptly and effectively suppress the rebellion, and that our Government has his warmest sympathies.

The tariff bill as passed, contains about 54 sections. That published in the Herald contains 76 but is bogus. A Northern journal just arrived from Richmond, says at the time of his departure that there was a great abundance of British coin circulating in the city, and it is currently reported that large amounts of gold have been advanced by British capitalists on the new crop.

At midnight the Senate is still in exciting session. All the prominent military appointments have been confirmed, including General Butler and Schenck, Col. Emory, &c. That of Commissioner of Public Buildings, Col. Wood, has not yet been acted upon.

Fifteen twenty-five pound rifled guns arrived here last night.

About twenty five of our cavalry skirmished the other side of Fall's Church with a squad of the rebels, several were wounded on each side.

We have contradictory statements that two rebel regiments are encamped four miles from Alexandria.

General Johnson Expresses Contempt for Gen. Patterson's Cowardice.

TERRIER'S DISPATCH.

A person recently arrived says Gen. Johnson expresses freely his contempt for what he styles Patterson's cowardice. The story about sixty-eight guns at Winchester is all fudge, they had but fifteen all told at any period.

Confirmation of Army Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The following nominations for Brigadier Generals, in addition to those heretofore announced, were, it is said, confirmed last night by the Senate.

Hurlbut, McClellan, Schenck, Grant, Baker, Lyon, Cox, Fremont, Anderson, King, Sigel and Couch.

The principal officers of the new army regiments were all confirmed, while objections comprised only a few of the minor appointments. Col. Meery's nomination was also confirmed.

CONGRESSIONAL.

XXXVII CONGRESS—EXTRA SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Senate bill relative to the Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of appeals.

The Senate bill was passed with an amendment, appropriating $20,000 for repairs to the Long Bridge over the Potomac.

Various measures were proposed to be taken up by different members, but objection were interposed.

The House passed the Senate bill to increase the pay of the regular army and volunteers.

On motion of Mr. Cox, resolution was adopted calling on the President, if compatible with the public service, to communicate to the House at the next session all correspondence with foreign nations since 1853, relative to maritime rights.

Mr. Wickliffe took occasion to say in the intelligence from Old Kentucky is for the Union, and being the first coming into the city will be the last to go out of it.

This announcement was received with wild delight. The friends of the Union, both on the floor and in the galleries, clapped their hands and otherwise gave vent to their feelings. exclamations were heard, "good for Old Kentucky," the applause was long continued, a more animated scene was seldom witnessed.

House adjourned sine die.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The following is the conclusion of yesterday's Senate.

After Executive Session, which was nearly eight-and-a-half hours, the Senate opened again at 10.30.

The House bill to increase the number of Representatives to 339, was taken up, and after a short discussion, was laid over.

On motion of Mr. Carlisle, the Senate proceeded to Executive Session at 11.30, and adjourned till 9.30 to-day.

Mr. Dixon moved to suspend the 26th rule of the Senate, to allow the Committee on Contingent Expenses to report a resolution and have it passed the same day.

Agreed to.

WASHINGTON, August 6.

Mr. Dixon reported a resolution to pay Hon. Asbury Dickens his salary as Clerk of the S. for a year from the present time.

The resolution passed, amounting to three thousand dollars.

The bill to punish certain crimes against the United States, was taken up and passed.

The Senate refused to consider the resolution of Mr. May, regarding the Baltimore Police Commissioners by 21 yeas and 33 nays.

All papers relative to the Kansas contested seat were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Wilson moved to take up the joint resolution approving of all the acts of the President, when Mr. Doolittle moved that the Senate go into Executive session.

The motion was disagreed to by the following vote:

Yeas—Baker, Bayard, Bingham, Carlisle, Chandler, Colburn, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Foote, Harlan, King, Lane, of Kansas, Morrill, Powell, Rice, Saulsbury, Thompson, Ten Eyck, and Wilmot—20.

Nays—Breckinridge, Bright, Browning, Clark, Cowan, Foster, Grimes, Howe, Johnson, of Tennessee, Johnson, of Mo., Kennedy, Lane, of Ind., Latham, McDougal, Polk, Pomeroy, Sherman, Sumner, Wade, Wilkinson and Wilson—21.

Mr. Breckinridge said that at the early part of this session Senators were very anxious to vote for this resolution approving of all the acts of the President, now there seemed to be a recoil. He thought it was a good sign.

Mr. Fessenden said that he had always been ready to vote.

The argument seemed to be made that the Senate was afraid to vote. The gentleman could have all the benefit of such argument.

Mr. Trumbull said he was not ready to vote for the resolution until after further consideration.

By consent, a resolution was passed to pay F. P. Stanton, who contested the seat of Senator Lane, his salary.

Mr. King then moved that the Senate go into Executive session, which was agreed to. Senate at 12½ adjourned sine die.

Night Dispatches.

What Congress has done—Pay of Soldiers increased two dollars.—The National Union will be taken.—The Rebels supplied with arms from Maryland—Prince Napoleon visits Mr. Vernon—No change to be made in the command of Fort Monroe.—The Brig ashore at Cape Hatteras—Lively work in the Gulf—Eleven Vessels captured or destroyed by the United States Steamer South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.

All the bills which passed both Houses, were moved by the President, who yielded a reluctant approval to that for the confiscation of property used for rebellious purposes.

Yesterday each house provided separately for an increase to the pay of volunteer and regular soldiers four dollars per month, but finally they united on a bill which will increase the pay to only two dollars per month.

Many members of both Houses leave to-day, for their homes.

Senator Latham will not return to California during the recess.

SPECIAL TO POST.

The Treasury Department has received advice of the most encouraging character in relation to the National loan. There is no doubt but the loan will all be taken.

The nomination for Brigadier General has all been confirmed by the President.

It is undeniable that the rebels continue to receive supplies of arms from Maryland. To-day a wagon broke down near Williams-town, Anne Arundel county, Maryland, about midway between Annapolis and the Junction, and on examination it was found to contain arms. The inhabitants permitted it to proceed as soon as it had been repaired.

The rebels are now leading to southern Maryland is closely watched by our forces.

Prince Napoleon accompanied by Secretary Seward, the French Minister and others, have gone to Mr. Vernon, in a Government steamer.

Gen. Butler has returned to Fortress Monroe, and it is now stated that no immediate change will be made in the command of the Post, except it is expected that Gen. Butler will return here before another advance movement.

The Navy Department is in receipt of a letter from Com. Goldsborough of the U. S. Steamer Union, dated Hampton Roads, yesterday, in which he says the brig ashore near Cape Hatteras, about which there was so much speculation, proved to be the B. T. Martin, of Boston, which had been in possession of the rebels.

It appears by other official advices from the Gulf Squadron, that on the 4th of July, off Galveston, the U. S. Steamer South Carolina, captured six Schooners; on the 5th two, and ran one ashore; on the 6th and on the 7th each, making in all eleven sail destroyed or captured.

The names of the captured vessels are Shark, Venus, Ann Ryan, McCaulfield, Louisa, Dart, Corallia, Gen. Geo. Baker, and San-Holman. A portion of the last captured, chiefly lumber. Among other things captured were 13 mail bags, and 31 bags containing Express matter. On the 5th of July, off St. Marks, Florida, the Mohawk captured the schooner George B. Sloat, attempting to run the blockade. There were as passengers on board, the wife, three children and servants of Adjutant General Holland.

Mr. Holland claimed the secession flag to be private property and secured it to her person. As the captain could not obtain possession of it, without using violence to a lady, who was in a delicate situation, he desisted from taking the prize.

The Navy Department will at once issue proposals in connection with the construction of the twelve-side-wheeled steamers of one or more iron clads vessels recently authorized by Congress.

Hon John J. Crittenden at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, August 6.—Hon. John J. Crittenden arrived here this afternoon. He made a highly patriotic speech this evening in the Capitol Square to a large and enthusiastic audience. He leaves here at 9 o'clock to-night for Cincinnati.

Another Battle in Missouri—Gen. Lyon and Ben. McCulloch Measure Strength—Gen. Lyon Victorious—A Brilliant Cavalry Charge—Another Battle Momentarily Expected.

SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI, August 3.—A battle occurred to-day at Dug Spring between the Federal forces under Gen. Lyon and the rebel troops under Ben. McCulloch, in which eight of the former were killed and thirty wounded, and forty of the latter killed and forty-four wounded.

Gen. Lyon took eighty stand of arms and fifteen horses and wagons.

Two hundred and seventy United States Cavalry made a charge upon a body of rebel infantry said to have been four thousand strong, and cut their way through them and returned with a loss of only five men. The charge was most gallant and terrible, several of the rebels being found with their heads cloven entirely through.

The enemy retired during the night, and Gen. Lyon took possession of the field.

Another battle was momentarily expected, the enemy being in large force west of Springfield.

Particulars soon as possible.

Return of Prize Brig.

NEW YORK, August 6.—The brigas Maid Machins and Ben Dunning, seized by the privateer Sumter near Genuefogos, arrived at this port to-day. They were released by order of the Spanish Government and sailed under convoy of the United States steamer Crusader as far as Cape Antonio.

Destructive Fire.

BALTIMORE, August 6.—There is nothing of any moment from Old Point to-day.

The Foundry of Pool & Hunt, of Baltimore county, just beyond the city limit, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $20,000, insured for $15,000 partly in New York and Philadelphia.
